O R D E R :

The Member Secretary, Andhra Pradesh State Legal Services Authority (APSLSA), Hyderabad vide letters read above, has stated that all the Legal Services Institutions in the State are implementing legal services schemes for:

- Providing Court based legal services
- Conducting legal awareness programmes and creating awareness among the common people about their entitlement and also creating awareness about the Government Welfare Schemes
- The target groups are also being providing assistance by the Legal Services Institutions in processing their applications to avail the benefits of Government Welfare Schemes.
- Conducting Lok Adalats for amicable settlement of both pending and pre-litigation cases

2. The Member Secretary, APSLSA further stated that in order to achieve the objectives of the Legal Services Authorities Act and to synergise the efforts of Legal Services Institutions and Government Agencies, effective coordination between the District Legal Services Authority and the District Administration is very much necessary.

3. Accordingly, as desired by the Hon'ble Sri Justice Ranjan Gogoi, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Executive Chairman, National Legal Services Authority, requested the Government to nominate one officer in each District in the rank of ADM or ADC as Nodal Officer for the purpose of coordination between District Legal Services Authority and District Administration.

4. Government, after careful examination of the matter, hereby nominate the Joint Collector in each District in the State as Nodal Officer for the purpose of coordination between District Legal Services Authority and District Administration.

5. The Member Secretary, Andhra Pradesh Legal Services Authority, Hyderabad/the District Collectors in the State shall take necessary further action accordingly.
